

Drinking Gourd Gallery Present

Black Diamond

at Rocky Mount Mills

October 15 - 31. 2021

Baseball has a rich, storied history. Rocky Mount Mills is partnering with Buck Leonard Association and Drinking Gourd Gallery to host, Black Diamond. The exhibition pays homage to Negro Leagues Baseball players and explores how and why the leagues were such a source of pride for the African-American community.

Learn More information visit:

www.dggallerync.com

www.buckleonard.org

Join Us

Oct

15

Opening night reception featuring the grand opening of Black Diamond, presented by Drinking Gourd Gallery. Black Diamond is a solo exhibition of works by artist and illustrator Darryl Matthews, honoring Negro Leagues Baseball players. Matthews is the son of late Negro Leagues first baseman Francis Oliver Matthews who played with the Newark Eagles.

Matthews will be on hand to speak about his work and his connection to the Negro Leagues. The evening will include light refreshments and live music by Jeremy Herring.

October 15

5:30p -7:30pm